Q.5 Case Study:

Future Tense is a medium sized electronic company located in a metropolis. It markets popular brands of home appliances like air conditioners, refrigerators, washing machines and microwave ovens and undertakes post sales maintenance. The policy of the company is to attend to the faults within 24 hours if the customer is within the city limits and within 36 hours if the customer is located outside the city limits. Obviously, the maintenance department is completely stretched and always works against stiff targets. Mr. Anil Kumar is working as one of the executives in the post-sale maintenance department. He has twelve mechanics in his team. It is his responsibility to depute mechanics to attend to the complaints of the customers after they report for duty in the morning.

The other day, Rahul, one of his most trusted and efficient employees, was assigned the duty to attend the complaint of one of the long-standing customers, Mr Suresh, whose air conditioner had developed a fault. At the end of the day, as part of his duty, Anil Kumar made a surprise visit to some of the select complainants, including Suresh, to know how satisfied they were with the performance of the mechanics. To his shock and surprise, he found that Rahul had not visited Suresh. When contacted on phone, Rahul informed Anil that the sudden illness and the subsequent hospitalization of his daughter was the reason for his inability to call on the customer. He also pleaded with Anil Kumar to help him out in this matter. However, the company has uncompromising rules that view dereliction of duty by employees for any reason as a major offence warranting immediate suspension.

Adhering to the rules, Anil Kumar reported the matter to the higher authorities, who promptly suspend Rahul pending a full-fledged enquiry. The news of Rahul's suspension created widespread resentment among other employees, who sympathized with Rahul. But Anil Kumar justified his action by saying that any compromise on that rule would have undermined not only the ability of his team to meet the stiff targets set by the company but also the rule itself. He also felt that this kind of behavior would set a bad precedent, eventually bringing disrepute to the company.

- (a) How do you view the whole incident that resulted in the suspension of Rahul?
 (b) What are the policy measures required for the company to deal with such
